Congratulations on your selection to represent the University of Melbourne at the 2012 Australian University Games.

If this is your first taste of representing the University at a national competition then I am sure that the experience will be one that you will cherish. You are now part of a long standing tradition of students representing the University of Melbourne dating back almost 150 years. The Sport Development team at Melbourne University Sport has worked hard to ensure that your participation is a positive and rewarding experience. The aim is to develop a real sense of pride in competing for the University and to ensure that the University of Melbourne is the best university at the Games in all respects.

Don’t forget to support your fellow Winged Victory team members in other sports as much as you can. There is nothing better than a bit of vocal support from your fellow students to bring out the best so try and get along and support other teams and individuals when your program allows.

The University of Melbourne takes great pride in the way our student–athletes conduct themselves both on and off the field. We encourage you enjoy the social opportunities available at the AUG but it is important that you look after yourself and others to ensure that everyone has an enjoyable time and gets home safely.

I would like to thank our Games’ management team lead by Katie Duncan, the team managers, coaches, medical staff and other support staff who have worked tirelessly to ensure that the best prepared and supported team is representing the University.

I am looking forward to getting around to many of the events during the week to give you all some support, so on behalf of all at the University I would like to wish you the best of luck, and know that you will enjoy the unique experience that is an Australian University Games!

The University of Melbourne’s 2012 accommodation properties are Oaks Precinct, Quest on Sturt & Wakefield and Mantra on Hindmarsh.

As we will be sharing these properties with other guests, you need to play your part in ensuring that everyone’s stay is enjoyable. Act with courtesy and respect – that’s what is expected of you when checking in and dealing with accommodation and security staff, when entering and exiting your property, as you take the lift up and down from your room, when interacting with other guests and especially when you’re in your room.

And it’s your room that you are sharing with your team-mates. Your room is for relaxing and sleeping in – not for team meetings or a place to gather before going out.

Keep the noise down – especially when returning home of an evening – treat others with courtesy and respect, and everyone will have time to remember in Adelaide.

The University’s Management Team consists of Katie Duncan (University Team Manager); Rod Warnecke (Assistant University Team Manager); Tom Lutwyche (Assistant University Team Manager); Amanda Thomson (Sport Precinct Manager); and Madeleine Rode (Sport Precinct Manager);

Your Sports Medicine Team will again be the best in town during the AUG and comprises Physiotherapists Kusal Goonewardena, Shayne Chatfield, Erica Pong and Sara Guevara and Massage Therapists Madeleine Rode and Chris Swinburne.

THANK YOU TO TEAM MANAGERS AND COACHES

To all of our Team Managers and Coaches, a very big thank you from all of us!

If you haven’t done so already, take a minute and think about all the behind-the-scenes organising your Team Manager and/ Coach has done to get your team to Adelaide. Selection trials, training, working out uniform sizes and numbers, reminding you to purchase that Red e-deal airfare... all the little things that are so important to making it as easy for you to represent the University of Melbourne at the Games.
